

A Even Before the 2020 Global Pandemic, It Seemed Clear That the Company Would Fail to Achieve Its Target

Prior to the 2020 global pandemic, Wall Street consensus estimated Adjusted EBITDA to be $895 million in 2020, which was 30% below the Company's initial 2018 Investor Day target.

Wall Street analysts estimated Adjusted EBITDA be 30% BELOW the Company's initial 2018 Investor Day target⁽²⁾

Even prior to the global pandemic, Wall Street analysts believed the Company would miss its 2018 Investor Day commitment to grow Adjusted EBITDA at a 10% CAGR through 2020.

(2) 2020 target calculated by taking 2017 Adjusted EBITDA pro forma for the sale of Chemical Intermediates (i.e. $1,040 million) then adjusting for the impact of one-time events as disclosed on pg. 18 of the Company's 2018 Investor Day presentation, which results in pro forma 2017 Adjusted EBITDA of $965 million. B Huntsman Sold Its Venator Stake For ONLY $140 Million, $860 Million LESS Than What Had Been Promised⁽¹⁾

The Company's ownership in Venator was liquidated at a fraction of the value that had been previously communicated to shareholders at Huntsman's 2018 Investor Day.

In 2018, the Company committed to monetizing its 53% stake in Venator for AT LEAST $1.0 billion...

"So again, I know that some are very anxious that we hold those shares. Others, very anxious that we sell those shares or swap those shares and so forth. We've got a very close handle on that, and it is our objective to be able to monetize those shares this year and. And to bring in another, at least, $1 billion into the company and into the cash flow of the company."

B The Company Disposed of Venator At “Fire Sale” Prices After Refusing For Years to Sell at Significantly Higher Prices

In August 2017, Huntsman IPO'd its TiO₂ business, Venator, into a publicly-traded entity while retaining a 53% stake, which the Company committed to monetizing for over $1.0 billion.

(2) Huntsman received only $140 million for its Venator stake. $140 million calculated as $100 million cash payment from SK Capital, plus $20 million assuming SK Capital exercises its call options for 9.5 million shares at $2.15 per share, plus $20 million in sale process from Huntsman's 4% Venator stake sold December 3, 2018 in order to deconsolidate the business. (3) The $100 million SK Capital paid to Huntsman on August 28, 2020 was divided into two parts, ~$91 million for 42.4 million shares, and $8 million for the option to purchase Huntsman's remaining stake at $2.15 per share. As a result, while SK Capital paid ~$100 million to Huntsman, the per share value paid for the 42.4 million shares transacted is $2.15 per share.

(3) After October 11, 2019, consensus Adjusted EBITDA estimates removed contributions from the Company's Chemical Intermediates business to mirror the Company's reporting of Chemical Intermediates in discontinued operations. In addition, between January 9, 2020, when the sale of Chemical Intermediates was completed, and April 30, 2020, the last trading day before Q1 2020 earnings were reported, the cash balance used to calculate enterprise value did not reflect cash received from completion of the sale. As such, we adjust enterprise value between October 1, 2019 and April 30, 2020 to assume $1.6 billion of net proceeds from the sale of Chemical Intermediates had already been received in order to place enterprise value and consensus Adjusted EBITDA on an apples-to-apples basis. Overall, the Company Comprehensively Failed to Execute on Its 2018 Investor Day Promises

Failure to Deliver on the 2018 Investor Day Promises Is Not an Isolated Incident – Huntsman Has a History of Failed Promises

The Company hosted investor days in both 2014 and 2016 where it also promised shareholders that financial performance would improve – each time, the Company failed to deliver on its commitment.

Summary of 2014 and 2016 Investor Day Promises

Investor Day	Commitment	Outcome
March 2014	The Company expressed strong confidence in achieving $2.0 billion of Adjusted EBITDA by 2016	FAILED
March 2016	The Company believed that its core non-TiO2 businesses would be able to generate $1.3 billion of Adjusted EBITDA by 2017	FAILED

Even before the 2018 Investor Day, the Company had failed to fulfill its commitments to shareholders for many years. We do not believe poor operational execution since 2018 is an isolated incident.
